HAER No. GA-99-A

Jet Lowe, HAER Photographer, August 1997

- GA-99-A-1 View looking west at east elevation of warehouses for Dixie Cotton Mill.
- GA-99-A-2 View looking northeast at Dixie Cotton Mill warehouses. Note firestops between sections of the building to prevent fire from spreading.
- GA-99-A-3 Interior view of section of warehouse building now used as an opening room. "Unifloc" machine manufactured by Rieter opens and blends cotton from several bales before processing.
